

March 22, 2017

8 Posh Properties That Put Florida at the Forefront of Real Estate Development

Four Seasons Private Residences Fort Lauderdale

3/8

Rebekah Bell

Four Seasons is bringing elevated living to the city with the advent of Four Seasons Private Residences Fort Lauderdale, a 90-unit tower with a range of one- to five-bedroom dwellings that will be completed in 2019. Varying in size from 780 to over 6,000 square feet, the airy, light-drenched residences marry beachfront charm and chic decor.

Abodes currently on the market include Residence 902, a two-bedroom, three-bathroom residence available for around $3.5 million. The space is a 2,236-square-foot domicile with a library, terrace, and master suite with walk-in closets and a sizable bathroom. Homeowners will have access to Four Seasons amenities such as beach butler service, private car service, 24-hour valet and security, and yachting services. Prices start at $900,000 for the unfurnished residences and $3.1 million for the furnished units. (fort525residences.com)